On the Road

SEDONA, AZ - Apologies for the delay in getting this issue of the Wenatchee North Poll out to you. You all know how hard it is to get everything in order before going on vacation for a week, made even that much more hectic having to get Rob packed and organized as you can imagine, and although not a good excuse, it's the only one I have! So, I am writing this to you all while crossing the vast Navajo reservation in Northern Arizona. Below is a sample of the wonderful scenery.

Ed. Note: A big photo like this is a sure sign of being desperate to fill space.

RINOS sleep it off

The third week of RINO Bowl competition was a snoozer with next to no change. In fact, it was such a yawn, Joey 'The Geek' didn't even show up. The same eight still out paced Ryan O'Ralphie, but without results, the drawing was skipped making next week's O'Ralphie beaters in the running for $30. A spur of the moment RINO Trivia question was asked that pegged Bob Mitchell for two converted touchdowns ($14) and his very unhelpful sidekick, Jim Goodwin, for a field goal ($3).

Last week, Western Oregon was scratched by Greg Brown & Aaron Bess-enette's Central Washington, 7-20, and Sewanee fell to Rob Tidd's Willamette, 28-33, in RINO Bowl competition.

Seven prognosticators remained tied for the lead in the Masters at 8-1 after the 49ers lost to the Seahawks, 3-29, and the Steelers fell to the Bengals, 10-20.

The upcoming slate of games pits Fred Van Sickle's Wisconsin against Purdue, Southern Oregon against Gordi Northrup's Eastern Oregon, and the Jaguars versus the Seahawks.

FEISTY FEMALE REPORTER of the Week: Bealinda Brady

BACKSIDE REVIEW

High fiving started the meeting as has become usual. Our illustrious president told of his exploits in the WVC Knights golf tournament and how he managed to slice a shot straight to the right clipping a bystander. He soothed her pain by buying her several 19th hole beverages. In keeping with the energized committee structuring, Earl Tilly gave a brief outline of what is in store for the club regarding the Rotary Foundation. He anticipates that WNRotary will once again meet or exceed $4,000 by ongoing Paul Harris sustaining memberships along with several reaching the Paul Harris Fellowship $1,000 plateau. Mahatma wants all members to check the committee roster he emailed out, and, if your name doesn't appear, to make sure to sign-up for one that is of interest. Mahatma mentioned to note on the committee spreadsheet that there are three tabs at the bottom - club service, community service, international service - and each committee is listed on its appropriate avenue of service page.

TIDDBITS

- A Board of Directors meeting was held September 19. Nothing to report.
- A foursome of Bob Bullis, Rich Adams, Rob Tidd and Bealinda Brady represented WNRotary in the WVC Golf Tournament. Bullis and Adams were the stars with both sinking big putts and Brady hit a couple of keeper drives. Tidd, though, was pathetically bad. Braden Draggo made his presence known by sponsoring the 12th hole.
- Remember, our club will be manning the main concession stand in the Apple Bowl during the WHS football game on Oct. 4. It takes a crew, and we need you! To sign-up email President Rob now!

- It will be a Wild time when East Wenatchee Rotary joins WNR for a tailgate party before the hockey game on Oct. 25. Tim Cetto's vacant lot across the street from the arena will be where it happens. More details will be coming.
- Rob Tidd won the Half the Pot Drawing for $44 and didn't think he should keep the cash...so, he gave it back.

Great Caesar's Ghost

by Perry White, editor in chief

A grievous error appeared in last week's Poll as reported by Rob Tidd and needs to be corrected posthaste. In his article headlined Nine eleven, 2013, Tidd stated, "On a lighter note, Jim Haglund reminded everyone of the significance of this particular day, today, and sixty-four years ago when he was born..." It's common knowledge that birthdays are celebrations of a year completed still breathing. Since this was in recognition of Haglund's and Jim Mills's 64th birthdays, it means those boys were born 65 years ago, not 64 as misrepresented by Tidd. We here at the Poll sincerely hope no psychological damage is done to the pair when realizing they are actually a year older than they may have previously thought.
